Turin, November 5, N. S.

THIS Morning the Body of King Victor Amadeus was carried from Montcallier to the Supergue, a Church two Miles from this City on the Top of a Hill, appropriated for the Burial of the Sovereigns of this Country. As the Proceſſion paſſed under the Ramparts in their Way to this Church, the Guns of the Town and Citadel were fired. The Body was attended by the Great Chamberlain, the Great Maſter of the Horſe, a Captain of the Horſe Guard, with a Lieutenant and 70 Men. The Body had lain in State for four Days at Montcallier, dreſſed out in the Royal Robes and the Habit of the Order of the Annonciada. There was a great Concourſe of People. His Sardinian Majeſty is retired to the Venerie, and has received there the uſual Compliments of Condoleance on this Occaſion, and will not return hither till about the 18th Inſtant.

Vienna, Nov. 8. The Emperour is perfectly recovered of his late Cold, and frequently holds Cabinet Councils. To-morrow Evening the new Opera will be performed, which was to have been done on the Emperour's Name-Day; but the great Firework is not to be played off till the 15th, being the Feſtival of St. Leopold, when their Imperial Majeſties will return to this City from the Monaſtery of Neuberg, or the 19th Inſtant, which is the Name-Day of the Empreſs. Yeſterday a Privy Council was held at Court upon the Affairs of Bohemia. The Duke of Lorrain will ſtay here till after the Celebration of the Empreſs's Name-Day.

Berlin, Nov. 15. General Borck, and General Count Levenwolde Miniſter from Ruſſia, have been theſe two Days at Potzdam, where his Majeſty has had two private Conferences with them. The King is expected here next Sunday. The Privy Councellor M. de Borck is gone to Dreſden, with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary to the King of Poland.

Hague, Nov. 21, N. S. The Prince of Naſſau Orange, who was expected here from Bruſſels on Saturday next, arrived here unexpectedly the 19th in the Evening. After having been to viſit the Preſidents of the ſeveral Colleges of the State, he received their Compliments Yeſterday and this Day upon his Arrival, as alſo thoſe of the Foreign Miniſters and other Perſons of Diſtinction. He will remain here till the Beginning of the enſuing Year, on Account of the Affairs which relate to the Diſtribution of the Effects of the late King William. The Grand Penſionary is now in a pretty good State of Health, and it is hoped that he will be able to aſſiſt at the Aſſembly of the States of Holland on Wedneſday next. The Commiſſioners of the Admiralty are ſtill here. The Directors of the Eaſt India Company are gone home, having given their Sentiments upon certain Affairs which concern their Trade. The Sieur Pallavicini, who was Secretary to M. Hop at Paris, is nominated to be Conſul of Holland at Algiers.

East-India Houſe, Leadenhall-ſtreet, Nov. 8, 1732.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt-Indies, having taken into Conſideration the Reſolutions of a General Court of the ſaid Company held on the 20th and 27th Days of September laſt, and one other Reſolution of the 3d of November Inſtant, whereby the Court of Directors are empowered to pay off their Four per Cent. Bonds, or reduce the Intereſt thereof, and having fully deliberated thereupon, have come to a Reſolution to give Notice, and accordingly the ſaid Court of Directors do hereby give Notice to all their Creditors by Bonds at Four per Cent. Intereſt, that the Company are willing, and do conſent to allow and pay to their ſaid Bond Creditors 3 l. 10 s. per Cent. Intereſt on the ſaid Bonds from the 31ſt of March next; and to this End, the ſaid Bond Creditors are to bring in their Bonds to the Eaſt India Houſe on or before the 15th Day of December next, to be noted and marked by the Company's Accomptant as Bonds bearing an Intereſt of 3 l. 10 s. per Cent. and the ſame are from the ſaid 31ſt Day of March to bear that Intereſt and no more: And ſuch Creditors as ſhall comply with this Notice, ſhall (if required) at any Time after the ſaid 15th Day of December, receive in Hand the Intereſt that ſhall be due upon the 31ſt Day of March: But if any of ſuch Bond Creditors ſhall fail or refuſe to bring in their Bonds by the ſaid 15th of December for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, ſuch Bonds of ſuch Defalters or Refuſers, ſhall be paid off on the ſaid 31ſt of March, according to the Purport of a former Notice given by the ſaid Company in the publick Papers.

The Committee for Letting the Cities Lands in the Account of the Chamberlain of the City of London, give Notice, that they intend to Latt by Leaſe, The Place or Office of one of the Fifteen Sea Coal Meters of this City, vacant by the Death of Mr. Thomas Skinner; And that the ſaid Committee will ſit in the Council Chamber of the Guildhall, London, on Wedneſday the 29th Day of November next, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, to receive Propoſals for the ſame: Of which more particular Information may be had at the Comptroller's Office in the Guildhall aforeſaid.

Trinity-Houſe, London, Nov. 9, 1732.

Whereas ſeveral of the Ballaſt-Men within the River of Thames have of late exacted Money from Maſters of Ships, contrary to the Orders of the Corporation of Trinity Houſe: The Maſter, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants of the ſaid Corporation give Notice, that the ancient and accuſtomed Prices of Ballaſt within the ſaid River are, 9 d. per Ton to Ships employed in the Coal Trade, 12 d. per Ton to all other Britiſh Ships, and 16 d. per Ton to foreign Ships; that they do not make or allow any farther Demand for the ſame, but have given ſtrict Directions to the contrary; and that if any Perſon employed in carrying Ballaſt to Ships, ſhall preſume to exact any farther Payment, he will be liable to be proſecuted for ſuch Exaction. The ſaid Maſter, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants, give farther Notice, that ſuch able bodied Men as are willing to be employed in the Ballaſt Service, may be employed accordingly, on applying to the Superviſors at the Ballaſt Office in Water Lane, near Tower-ſtreet.
